

EPSOM HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
MAY 17, 2009

The Epsom Historical Association met at the Epsom Public Library Community Room on May 17, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. with President TJ Rand presiding. The meeting was called to order at 2:10 p.m.

The secretary's report was read and accepted.

The Treasurer's report was given. There is a balance of $3,614.77 in the checking account, $256.77 in the savings account, and $729.35 in the "meeting house" fund.

Cookbook Committee: The cookbook is being proofread, and graphics are being inserted. The committee hopes to go to print in June. Kathy Bailey conducted interviews with committee members this past week which will be in the food section of the paper.

Membership: There are currently 101 members.

Work is resuming at the "old library": Electrical work will soon be completed. There is a problem with the chimney creating leaks inside the building. A new sign, "Epsom Historical Center", is nearly done. Plants have been donated; discussion will consider where to put the plants without blocking views of the building.

Coming Events:

The next meeting will be Sunday, July 12, location to be determined. This will be a kick-off for the Recipe Cookbook and a summer social.

The Business Meeting was adjourned at 2:20.

The program this date was a presentation by Megan and TJ Rand on Epsom history as found in news articles from 1760 on; this was presented as a newscast with slideshow.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce Heck
Secretary
